

NATIONAL WHIG.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT
From a speech delivered before the Washington Association in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, July 4th, 1815.

BY JAMES BUCHANAN, now Secretary of State of the United States.

"Time will not allow me to enumerate all the other wild and wicked projects of the Democratic Administration. Suffice it to say, that after they had deprived us of the means of defence, by destroying our navy and disbanding our army; after they had taken away from us the power of recreating them, by ruining commerce, the great source of national and individual wealth; after they had, by refusing the Bank of the United States a continuation of their charter, embarrassed the financial concerns of the Government, and withdrawn the only universal paper medium of the country from circulation; after the people had become accustomed to, and, of course, unwilling to bear taxation, and without money in the Treasury, they rashly plunged us into a war with a nation more able to do us injury than any other in the world. What was the dreadful necessity for this desperate measure? Was our country invaded? No. Was it to protect our little remaining commerce from the injuries it sustained by the orders in Council? No. Commerce was not such a favorite, and the merchants wished for no war on that account. Besides, if the existence of the orders in Council had been its true cause, after their repeal our country would have accepted the olive branch which was offered by England. What then was the cause? The one for which we proposed to draw the sword, and risk our all, was to determine an abstract question of the law of nations, concerning which, an opinion different from that of our administration was held by Europe,—to decide whether a man can expatriate himself or not. In the decision of this question our administration pretended to feel a deep interest.
The greater part of those foreigners who would be affected by it, had long been one of our warmest friends. They had been one of the great means of elevating the present ruling party, and it would have been ungrateful for that party to have abandoned them.

"Superficial observers may suppose this to have been the real source of the war; but whoever will carefully and impartially examine the history of our country, will find its true origin to have been far different. It took its rise from the overweening partiality which the Democratic party have uniformly shown for France, and the consequent hatred which they felt against her great adversary, England. To keep this foreign feeling alive, has been the labor of their leaders for more than twenty years; and well have they repaid for their trouble, for it has been one of the principal causes of introducing and continuing them in power. Immediately before the war, this foreign influence had completely embodied itself with every political feeling of a majority of the people, particularly in the West. Its voice was heard so loud at the seat of government, that the President was obliged either to yield to its dictates, or retire from office. The choice in this alternative was easily made by a man, who preferred his private interest to the public good. We were therefore hurried into the war utterly unprepared.

"What has been its result? Exactly what every reasonable man expected at its commencement. We declared our intention of conquering Canada; whether for the purpose of annexing it to the United States, or of compelling our enemy to yield the doctrine of impressment, is immaterial to the present question. Instead of conquering it, we have ourselves been invaded in every quarter, and the best blood of the country has streamed in defence of our own soil. The very capital of the United States, the lofty temple of liberty, which was reared and consecrated by Washington, has been abandoned to its fate by the DEGENERATE successor, who ought to have shed his last drop of blood in its defence.

"After the Administration had entered upon the war, instead of coming forward with manly confidence, and taxing the people for its support, they basely shrunk from their duty, in order to maintain their popularity, and adopted the ruinous system of carrying on the contest by borrowing money.
What were the effects of this policy? Does not every man in the country know, was it even disguised by the Administration, that the United States would, in a short time, have become bankrupt, had not peace been concluded?

"Thanks then to heaven, that we have obtained a peace, BAD AND DISGRACE-FUL AS IT IS; otherwise, the beautiful structure of the Federal Government, supported by the same feeble hands, might have sunk, like the capitol, into ruins.

"Instead of exempting seamen sailing under our flag from impressment by the war, we have altogether relinquished that principle; because it is a well established truth in the law of nations, that if war be waged by one country against another for a specified claim, and the treaty which terminates the contest, is silent upon that subject, it is forever abandoned. Thus the Government have at last yielded the very point for the maintenance of which they professed to go to war, after having expended nearly $200,000,000.

"We have not only not obtained by the war any thing which we were taught to expect, but we have lost many valuable privileges. All the numerous rights and advantages guaranteed to us by Jay's treaty have not only been compelled to conclude a treaty which does not contain one solitary stipulation in our favor, except that there shall be peace, but which unsettles the boundaries of our country, and leaves to the decision of commissioners whether we shall longer retain a part of our own territory, which we have held in quiet possession for more than 20 years."

NEW MILITARY WORK.
D. APPLETON & Co., 200 Broadway, New York, have lately published in a fine style—Elements of Military Art and Science; or course of Instruction in Strategy, Tactics, &c. &c. &c. &c. &c. embracing the duties of Staff, Infantry, Cavalry, Artillery, and Engineers. Adapted to the use of Volunteers and Militia. By H. Wager Hal-lock, A. M., Lieut. of Engineers, U. S. Army. 1 vol. 12mo. Illustrated. Price $1 50.

For those who take pleasure in studying the art of war, and especially for those whose profession is that of arms, this must prove a valuable work.
The author appears to be perfectly well informed in military tactics, and has illustrated his instructions by various drawings and plans, which make them easily understood. The various means of national defence are minutely set forth—the position and character of the fortifications, on our Northern frontier especially, are accurately described, and the duties and organization of each arm of the national defence—infantry, cavalry, artillery, and engineers—described with much precision. Indeed, no pains have been spared to make an authentic and instructive book.—Commercial Advertiser.

factured Patent Improved Periscopic Spectacle Lens, an instrument evidently designed to supersede all other aids to the human vision; judging from testimonials of their superior properties over other lens, it will only be necessary to refer to observation and facts to establish for them a far higher character for usefulness than has hitherto been attained by the efforts of art and science.

important to see clearly.

CHEAT AND GROW RICH.

THIS has been the secret principle of too many of the wholesale dealers in Tea up to this time, and they have practiced most shameful imposition on the Country Merchant without any fear of detection. But a new era in the Tea Trade has come and Pekin Tea Company claims the honor of its introduction. They were the first to raise the banner of Reform, on which it has inscribed the simple words —"PURE TEAS AT HONEST PRICES."

A complete revolution has been the consequence.
Let consumers of Tea everywhere look at what we have done.

1st. We were the first to send them Teas that used to be called too good for them before.

2d. We have driven out the market a vast amount of trash, and introduced a better class of Tea than has ever yet been sold. Importers of Tea often come to us to get for their own use, a id for their friends, fine qualities they can find nowhere else.

3d. We have reduced prices more than 25 per cent. both in Black and Green Teas. The wholesale grocers are we are ruining the trade and call us humbugs. This we have done already, and now we show what we are ready to do.

1st. We will sell Teas by the single chest, half chest or 14 pounds box, at the same prices that wholesale grocers pay to the importers when they buy by the hundred packages.

2d. The wholesale grocers allow only 13 or at most 14 pounds tea to the half chest. This is a cheat. We allow, in most instances, 15 and 16 lbs. tea to the same.

3d. We hereby undertake to sell every kind of Tea, from six to twelve cents per pound cheaper than the wholesale grocers do.

How can we do this? asks the country merchant.
This is our answer. We are content with seven percent profit instead of 25 and 50 per cent, a la wholesale grocer.

We deserve the thanks of the country merchants for saving them hereafter from being cheated. Let them come to the Warehouse of the Pekin Tea Company, and compare samples of Teas they get elsewhere; and if they buy bad Teas then at high prices in their own country.

An English importer lately boasted to us that he could make more money by sending bad Teas to the New York market, than on good Teas. We are resolved to overthrow this fraud; and now call upon agents in every town in the United States to come forward and buy Teas imported by the Pekin Tea Company, and we pledge ourselves, that if in six months they do not sell more Teas than the oldest and largest dealers in the town, we will give them our Tea without charge. This is plain English and cannot be misunderstood. We appeal for testimony to the immense success of our Agents in any part of the United States.

Agents wanted in every town in the United States for the sale of these Teas, by which they can make money, and confer a benefit upon the Public by supplying the pure article.

ON SALE AT THE WAREHOUSES OF THE PEKIN
TEA COMPANY, 75 & 77 Fulton Street, New York.

"The Tea mentioned in this Catalogue, are done up in quarter pound, half pound and one pound packages—the first or inside wrapper is lead, the second wrapper is of fine paper, and the third or outside wrapper is of Chinese rice paper. The Company sell none but good Teas, done up in this superior manner all of them grown in the most luxurious districts in China. Country dealers may select as small a quantity of each kind as they like, and have them packed in one chest. These Teas also come in five pound Chinese packages, called quatons, a very convenient fanciful and portable shape.

[Persons in any part of the United States or Canada, can order any of the Teas in this Catalogue, by letter, in quantities to suit their wishes. We will deliver to them, free of charge, the Teas they
